Gentlemen:—I have been taking your Restorative Nervine for the past three months and I cannot say enough in its praise. It has Saved My Life,

for I had almost given up hope of ever being well again. I was a chronic sufferer from nervousness and could not sleep. I was also troubled with nervous headache, and had tried doctors in vain, until I used your Nervine. MISS M. WOOD, Ringwood, Ill.

IT IS BETTER TO LIVE.

"I have sometimes felt that the burden Of life was too heavy to bear;
And have longed to lie down at the noontide And rest and forget all my care;
But over my heart comes the message, Repeated again and again—
'It is better to live and to suffer, Than to die to be rid of the pain.'"

"There is rest in the darkness of dying, And end to the weary despair;
The grave holds sure peace and calm silence;
No sorrow or pain can be there;
But perhaps in the struggle of living,
Is a soul that has need of my care—Some heart may be bearing a burden, That my hand may lighten or share."

"'T would be easy to say, 'I am weary,' And lie down and give up the strife, To suffer no more with the heartache And sorrow I meet in this life; But perhaps from my sorrow-swept heart strings
A melody sweet may be wrung, And my lips when they drink deep of suffering The tenderest songs may have sung."

"'Tis so hard to be patient with living When all the world is away;
So when weariness waits for pleasures That will only come after we die;
But even through all my complaining I can hear that untiring refrain—
'It is better to live and to suffer,
Than to die to be rid of the pain.'"

"I will live and be strong and will suffer, If need be, until I find rest, When life and its trials are over;
Though never my life should be blest, Though always the sun should be darkened By the clouds that hang over my way, I will trust that the light will be clearer When at last I awake in the day."

A Foul Brute Foiled.
A negro named Haggard, aged about twenty-one years, who was a work hand on Mr. Ezekiel Elkin's place, near Elkin Station, Claak Co., on Saturday evening, attempted to rape the fourteen-year-old daughter of his employer. The negro caught the girl a short distance from the house and throwing her to the ground attempted to put into execution his foul purpose. The grandmother of the girl ran to her assistance and the negro fled. The miscreant was arrested by the marshal of Ford and yesterday morning was lodged in the Winches' jail. He makes no attempt to deny the charge. A lynching was strongly talked of when our informant left.

The Dog Law.

Chief of Police Wilson has given notice that unless the license is paid and the dogs tagged by to-day he will begin a slaughter of all the canines found running at large. This notice has caused no little stir among the friends of Fido, and much hardis the kicking against the enforcement of this ordinance. Some are procuring injunctions restraining the marshal from killing their dogs, others are paying the State tax, hoping thereby to avoid the city license tax. The Marshal, unless stopped by process of law, will see that the provisions of the ordinance are executed. A thinning out of the worthless curs of the town will be an inestimable blessing to the community.

A cure-all has been discovered in eases.

The Montgomery Ball Club entertained in Masonic Temple last Wednesday night. The affair was one that will be remembered by those present as being one among the many highly enjoyable social events given by the M. B. C.
The room was decorated in a most tasteful manner with a large variety of beautiful potted plants and flowers. The music furnished by Saxton's orchestra was grand.
In fact the management and general arrangement of the whole affair was perfect, and the members of the M. B. C. should enjoy the loud praise they so worthily received from every source for the inimitable style in which they entertained their friends.
The occasion was made more socially gay and enjoyable in consequence of the many guests from a distance, who were made to enjoy themselves. The crowd danced till 2 o'clock, when they dispersed feeling obligated to the M. B. C. for the nice manner in which they were entertained. "M."

Mrs. Mary Chambers, aged 68 years, died at her home near Salem Church, not far from the Menefee and Montgomery line, on Wednesday last, July 10. Mrs. Chambers was the widow of Gideon Chambers and a sister-in-law of Joseph Chambers, of Chambers Station. She was a most excellent woman, whose motherly instincts and kindly ways in the sick room made her a greatly beloved and useful member of her community.
Few in her circle of acquaintance will be missed more than she.

On Tuesday morning last at Sharps-Boyd, colored, became involved in a difficulty and pistols were called in requisition. Vice was seriously shot while Boyd was mortally wounded.

Boyd died on Thursday morning. The shooting was the result of a quarrel over a negro girl.

A heavy rain interfered with the open meeting of the Christian Eviangelist delegates at Boston Saturday.
It is estimated that between 40,000 and 60,000 persons were on Boston Common when the rain came up.
About 15,000 found seats in the big tents, but the balance had to leave for shelter.
